

Listen to the report about a bird sanctuary and decide which ending is the correct one. Put an "X" next to the correct answer.

1. The Wild Coast project	has been functioning for years.
	has just been started.
2. RSPB would like to	convert farmland into habitat for wildlife.
	preserve the farmland for the birds.
3. Wallasea	was purchased by the RSPB in 2000.
	has 670 hectares of marsh.
4. The project	involves starting traditional human activities on the coast.
	concentrates only on preserving wildlife habitat.
5. Due to global warming	the island could have faced drought.
	the island could have been flooded by water.
6. Wallasea Island	already attracts 14 000 birds.
	hosts less birds during winter.
7. The spoonbill	has already become extinct in Britain.
	is a native bird in England.	